Camp Sun ‘N Fun Receives $1,500 For More Sun and Fun
Investors Bank Provides Funds To Camp for Disabled in Williamstown

ROBBINSVILLE, New Jersey – More than 300 people soon will flood Camp Sun ‘N Fun in Williamstown, ready for days and weeks of hiking, swimming, and playing sports. But this is not just any camp, but one catering to the needs of children and adults of all ages with developmental disabilities. The Investors Foundation recently granted The Arc Gloucester, which founded and operates the camp, $1,500 to replace an old oil heating system with gas.

“We are so unique to other camps because we service children and adults; we have a five-year old and an eighty-five year old here at the same time,” said Brenda Scardefield, Assistant Executive Director at The Arc Gloucester. “Camp is a very special place. The need is unbelievable; this year we will have our highest attendance ever. We don’t receive any state funds, so we couldn’t do the things we do without help from the community.”

The Arc Gloucester applied for the grant from the Investors Foundation, which supports non-profit organizations that enrich the diverse communities served by Investors Bank.

The Camp holds a special place in the heart of Investors Bank Assistant Vice President and Williamstown Branch Manager Shannon Morgan-Leonen. Her brother-in-law, Danny Leonen, 54, of Williamstown, attends camp.

“It’s dear to me to be at camp today,” said Morgan-Leonen when she presented the check to Camp Sun ‘N Fun. “Danny has been a camper here for 30 years and he loves it. This place is special.”
