Federal law provides important protections to members of the Armed Forces and their dependents relating to extensions of consumer credit. In general, the cost of consumer credit to a member of the Armed Forces and his or her dependent may not exceed an annual percentage rate of 36 percent. This rate must include, as applicable to the credit transaction or account: The costs associated with credit insurance premiums; fees for ancillary products sold in connection with the credit transaction; any application fee charged (other than certain application fees for specified credit transactions or accounts); and any participation fee charged (other than certain participation fees for a credit card account).

ECOA NOTICE TO LOAN APPLICANT

You are required to read this statement concerning the Equal Credit Opportunity Act of 1975 (ECOA), as amended, before our loan interviewer may commence taking your application. The reason for this is to enable Investors Bank to comply with this law in a manner which provides our customers with the best possible service. At the bottom of this notice you will be asked to sign and acknowledge that you have read it and aware of your rights under this law. If you refuse to sign, the interviewer cannot proceed with the application.

1. It is the policy of Investors Bank to comply with all applicable laws and regulations. Since you are about to request, in writing, that we extend mortgage credit to you based on the information you are about to give, we want you to be aware of your rights under the Equal Credit Opportunity Act of 1975, as amended.
2. The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the bases of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (providing the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicants income derives from any public assistance program; or, because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act.
3. The Federal agency that administers compliance with this law concerning our company is: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, PO Box 4503, Iowa City, IA 52244.
4. Under this law there are three (3) classes of marital status, and they are:
 - a) Unmarried, which includes anything, which is not remaining two (2) choices.
 - b) Married.
 - c) Separated.We are not concerned with any other category.
5. If you are under legal obligation to anyone to pay alimony, child support, or separate maintenance, we are required to document the amount of any such obligation, and its duration, by requesting written evidence.
6. If you wish to claim as income, the receipt of any income from sources other than your normal employment, you may do so. If such income is claimed and is to be evaluated in determining your eligibility for the requested credit, we will require written evidence of this income.
7. When we have a completely documented application file, we will render our decision. If it should become unfortunately necessary to make an adverse decision, you are entitled to be informed, in writing, of such decision within thirty (30) days of the decision.

I acknowledge that I have read the above statement/notice and am aware of Investors Bank's policies concerning the above-mentioned portion of the Equal Credit Opportunity Act.

USA PATRIOT ACT INFORMATION

CERTIFICATION

The undersigned certify the following:

1. I/We have applied for a consumer loan from Investors Bank. In applying for the loan, I/We completed a loan application containing various information on the purpose of the loan; the amount and my/our employment, income information, assets, and liabilities. I/We certify that all of the information is true and complete. I/We made no misrepresentations in the loan application or other documents, nor did I/We omit pertinent information.
2. I/We understand and agree that Investors Bank reserves the right to change the loan review process. This may include, but is not limited to verifying the information provided on the application with my/our employer and/or the financial institution.
3. I/We fully understand that it is a Federal crime punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, to knowingly make any false statements when applying for this loan, as applicable under the provisions of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1014.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT

In accordance with Section 326 of the USA PATRIOT Act signed October 26, 2001, the Bank is required to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an account or who has signing authority on an account. In some cases, identification will be requested for those individuals already banking with the Bank because current documentation may not be available.

What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask you for your name, address, date of birth, tax identification number and other information that will allow us to identify you. We will also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

Protection of our customer's information and identify is the Bank's pledge to you.

RE-VERIFICATION OF CREDIT HISTORY AND EMPLOYMENT STATUS DISCLOSURE

This is to advise you that Investors Bank ensures that the quality of every loan it originates meets the Bank's standards. In order to ensure that every loan meets the Bank's credit and employment standards, critical data such as credit history and employment status will be re-verified prior to your scheduled loan closing.

It is important for you to know that, once you have submitted a loan application with us, you should maintain your total debt obligations at or below the levels revealed to us during the underwriting of your loan. Material increases in current obligations, or potential or new obligations that would affect the initial decision that was made during underwriting, may also affect your loan approval which will cause your closing to be postponed or cancelled.
